Purpose

To help each person develop their own personalized presentation of the whole Gospel in a fashion that communicates clearly, gives emphasis to the greater story and provides initial Biblical support.

How one speaks of the Gospel

Directions

1. Craft a 1-2 sentence summary of each of the 6 points of the Gospel using the concepts gained in teaching and through the summaries listed below. As you create these statements, make them for a person who has never heard the Gospel.
2. Find two verses for each point which best illustrate the concept and assist you in demonstrating the Gospel
3. Find one larger passage from the Bible that gives the whole gospel in one reading. Look for a text that would be comfortable for you to read along with a person and explain the gospel from that passage.
